

| | |
|--------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Description | crayon portrait of Henry David Thoreau as a young man |
| Date | 1854 |
| Source | www.walden.org/Institute/Images/VII.%20Rowse.jpg |
| Author | Samuel Worcester Rouse |
| Permission | public domain |
| Description | Portrait by Benjamin D. Maxham (daguerreotype), black and white of Henry David Thoreau in June 1856. The writer-collared post a beard and is dressed in a black frock coat, a white shirt and a black bow tie. |
| Date | 1856 |
| Source | http://eserver.org/thoreau/images.html |
| Author | Slightly edited (contrast, brightness) Benjamin D. Maxham |
| Permission | Since Thoreau died in 1862, this photography necessarily is in the public domain |
| Description | Henry David Thoreau, photograph taken in August 1861 and published circa 1879, head-and-shoulders portrait, facing slightly right. Edited image from Library of Congress item LC-USZ61-361 (b&w film copy neg.). |
| Date | Photographed August 1861, Published c. 1879 |
| Source | Transferred from en.wikipedia |
| Author | George F. Parlow (d. 1926) |
| Permission | PD-US; PD-OLD-70. |

Henry David Thoreau is the author of Walden.